

Overview and General Policies

- This course provides hands-on experience with lab assignments and programming projects in a structured computer language (Java) that complement the course material in CSCI 1301.
- Strictly no food or drink allowed in the lab.
- All lab sessions on any day are 50 minutes long.

Attendance

- Attendance to each lab is mandatory!
- The sign-in sheet will be passed around at the beginning of class. Please be on time.
- If you are unable to attend lab due to extraneous circumstances, please email me as soon as possible and CC Dr. Couto. (coutoji@uga.edu)

Collaboration and Academic Honesty

- You are allowed to discuss the assignments with other students and help them understand the general ideas behind an assignment. However,
 - you are not allowed to glance over and/or use someone else's code, and
 - you are not allowed to provide another student with line-by-line assistance.
- As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University's academic honesty policy, "A Culture of Honesty," and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in "A Culture of Honesty" found at: www.uga.edu/honesty. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.

When are Lab Assignments due?

If the lab is assigned on	Then it is due on
Monday or Tuesday	Sunday by 11:55pm
Wednesday or Thursday	Tuesday by 11:55pm

- Lab assignments must be submitted via ELC.
 - Please make sure you have access to the course ELC page.
 - If you are unable to access ELC to submit your assignment then email me your assignment and CC Dr. Couto.
- Late lab assignments are not accepted.

Grading

- Labs are graded using a 0-2 grade scale.

Grade	What that means
0	Either the lab assignment was not submitted on time or it did not compile.
1	The lab assignment compiled, but it is only partially correct.
2	The lab assignment compiled, and it is correct.

- Breakdown: 10% Attendance, 90% Lab Assignments
- Lab grades should be available one week after the due date.

Other Information

- The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.